

ACE OF TRUMPS SHIRAZ

McLaren Vale | 2019

This wine is a fine example of McLaren Vale Shiraz.

Selectively harvested and matured in new and seasoned French oak barriques for 16 months. Beautiful colour of vivid ruby magenta with aromas of intense and layered plum and raspberry, with hints of spice and cedary oak. Rich red fruit flavours intensify and mingle with soft velvety tannins to give a generous wine full of flavour and with pleasing persistence.

This wine is very enjoyable now but will reward patient cellaring for 10-20 years. +

Ace of Trumps is a tribute to my family's racehorse, which won the Adelaide Cup in 1874.

Fancy, complex, layered Shiraz with plenty of intensity, strong woody spice elements over stewed forest berries, vanilla bean and sandalwood notes, big in perfume, bold in flavour. It rolls along with its sumptuous nature at large. Distinctly potent and yet finds its groove well. A decadent expression done well.

In-the-zone McLaren Vale shiraz with ripe plum and black fruits, charry elements, crumbled earth all playing a role in a complete expression of variety and region. The palate has energy and medium to full-bodied flow. Plenty to enjoy here.
